

ASSASSIN SAYS HE IS GUILTY

Court Did Not Allow Plea, and Entered One of Not Guilty.

TRIAL IS ON TODAY

Strong Guards Surround Czolgosz to Prevent Vengeance by a Mob.

DECLARED TO BE SANE

Buffalo, Sept. 23.—The trial of Czolgosz began this morning. The prisoner was brought into the court room shackled by two guards. To avoid danger of mob violence he was conducted to the court room through a tunnel connecting the court house and jail.

Early this morning the police officers began assembling in and about the city hall. Every avenue to the building was taken possession of and no one was permitted to enter without identification by an official pass. Those who got within were watched to prevent a possible attempt on the prisoner's life.

NO POISON ON THE BULLET

Experts Rigidly Examine the Assassin Czolgosz and Declare Him Sane. Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 24.—Leon F. Czolgosz, the assassin of the president, whose trial began this morning, was subjected to a thorough examination by insanity experts.

All the doctors declined to be quoted as to their findings, on the ground that probably they would be called as witnesses. They, however, authorized the statement as a whole that all the specialists who had examined the prisoner were agreed that he was sane.

The most important development was the announcement that no poison had been found on the bullets or the revolver with which the anarchist assassinated President McKinley. Chemical and bacteriological examinations were made and both revealed the fact that no poison was used by the murderer.

Special wires for both of the big telegraph companies were strung to the third floor of the city hall yesterday. They will be used in direct connection with great cities and places of importance that will be interested in the progress of the trial.

Many Bibles and copies of the New Testament have been sent to the district attorney for Czolgosz. For once a murderer has not received flowers or other tokens of good will. Penny also has been deluged with letters of advice and notes telling him what should be done.

The evidence of the prosecution will be direct and unmistakable. No claim will be made that the bullets were poisoned. Eye witnesses will tell the story of the shooting. The evidence of the defense thus far has failed to develop. Czolgosz himself simply keeps silence as to his crime.

The suggestion was made yesterday that he should be put on the stand but it was said that he would decline to answer questions. Thus, apart from the admission of the crime and a plea of insanity, there will be little left for Czolgosz. His attorneys will not delay the case needlessly. They will protect his rights and defend his life with the honor and ability they are known to possess. He will have all that the law gives to every citizen who is innocent or guilty.

KERSTEN ASSETS ARE SHORT

Creditors Will Not Be Able to Get Over 75 Cents on the Dollar. Oshkosh, Wis., Sept. 23.—The creditors of the German Exchange Bank of Chilton, commonly known as the Kersten bank, will receive less than 75 cents on the dollar. The assets of the concern are valued at $459,000. The liabilities are $602,000. There are 1,223 creditors, who have chosen J. C. Kleist of Milwaukee, trustee, to get possession of the assets.

James Cranston, W. Homer Lee and F. M. Gardner were up from the Line City yesterday to spend the day.

THE BUFFALO FAIR IS HIT HARD:

APPEAL TO COUNTRY FOR SUPPORT

Revulsion of Feeling Following the Murder of President McKinley Injures Exposition Enterprise.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 23.—This city is pulling itself together again after a fortnight of anxiety and sorrow, such as has never known. What was intended to be the gala period of its history was turned into unspeakable grief, which has gone into every home with a force hard for anyone not here to realize.

There never was a community more engrossed in a great undertaking than Buffalo was with the Pan-American exposition three weeks ago. The revulsion was terrible and now that it is passed the question of what is to come is interesting. The public feeling is strong and all one way. Every one seems to realize that the stockholders of the exposition have met a great loss, probably of not less than a million dollars.

That practically means the citizens for about every Buffalonian has stock in the exposition, according to his means. The dollars and cents seem pretty thoroughly to be eliminated from the calculation now, but the work to be done and the end to be achieved seem foremost in every man's mind.

They feel now that the exposition must be carried to a glorious finish as a labor of patriotism and love. President Milburn put this thought strongly. He said: "There must be no faltering in our efforts now, considering how much the success of the Pan-American Exposition means in the development of closer political and commercial relations between the peoples of the Western Hemisphere. That was a policy earnestly favored by President McKinley and which interested him so deeply in the exposition from its first inception."

"There are six weeks more of the life of the exposition, and it is in the full bloom of its beauty and interest. Every feature of it has been developed to its highest point, and it is being operated on a more elaborate scale than ever. It is a complete work of varied activities and entertainments, more than adequately carrying out its aims and purposes. It is a national enterprise and should be supported as such for the credit of our country as the leading nation of this hemisphere."

VILLAGE OF MILTON HORRIFIED; SUICIDE OF MRS. JAMES VINCENT

Well Known Rock County Woman Made Nervous by Illness, Ends Her Troubles by Taking Strychnine—She Leaves a Husband and Two Children.

Milton, Wis., September 23. (Special)—This quiet village was horrified Sunday when it became known about one o'clock that Mrs. James Vincent had committed suicide. Deceased has been ill with nervous trouble for some weeks and had been at the home of her father, Andrew Douglass, at Rock Prairie, seeking rest and quiet.

Recently her husband was confined to the house by illness and she came home to care for him, but was unable to do so. Her nervous condition increased and last Friday in conversation with W. P. Clarke in his drug store spoke of her nervous condition, remarking at the time that it was unbearable and that at times she felt that death would be a welcome relief. Sunday about eleven o'clock she told Mr. Vincent that she was afraid she was going to have a serious time and requested Mrs. Joseph Richmond, a neighbor and nurse, to be sent for. When Mrs. Richmond came Mrs. Vincent informed her that she had taken strychnine.

Physicians here and at Milton Junction were called by telephone. Dr. W. H. Borden, who was found to be at the Congregational church, was sent for, but before he could reach the house Mrs. Vincent had breathed her last. After taking the poison, deceased walked to the adjoining yard of Mrs. F. M. Dunn and threw the bottle which had contained the strychnine into the chicken park, where it was afterward found by J. P. Dullis.

She told Mrs. Richmond that the strychnine was some Mr. Vincent purchased long ago to kill mice and rats and an investigation of W. P. Clarke's poison register shows that he did purchase some in November, 1899.

Mrs. Vincent leaves a husband and two daughters, eight and two years of age, and her family relations were pleasant, in fact, with the recent conversation with Mr. Clarke she remarked that no wife had a better or kinder husband than she. The heart-felt sympathy of the entire community goes out to the bereaved husband and motherless children in this their hour of great affliction. The funeral arrangements have not been perfected at the time we write.

WANTS TO JOIN HER HUSBAND IN DEATH

Hard Task to Get Mrs. McKinley Away From the Idea That She Must Die.

Canton, O., Sept. 23.—The hardest task Dr. Rixey and the relatives and attendants of Mrs. McKinley have is to get her away from the idea that she must die. She wants to join her husband in death. She has so told her friends. In order to supplant this morbid idea they have resorted to driving frequently.

Yesterday forenoon Mrs. McKinley, Dr. Rixey and Mrs. Barber drove to Westlawn cemetery. This drive was taken at the suggestion of Mrs. McKinley. In the afternoon Dr. Rixey desired her to be taken for a drive and she consented when the suggestion was made. The route was out into the country. Dr. Rixey has learned that drives tend to promote sleep for his distinguished patient. This is what she needs. The effect of the drive was to bring on slumber and rest.

The announcement made by Dr. Rixey for the public is that Mrs. McKinley was still holding her own. She rests fairly well. Her mind is still taxed with heavy sorrow and her body is frail. The outcome is a matter of much doubt and deep concern. At present there is no indication of any great change either for the better or the worse.

JEFFERSON FAIR OPENS TOMORROW

Exhibits, Attractions and Races Promise To Be the Best Ever Held in That County.

Jefferson, Wis., Sept. 23.—Everything is now in readiness to receive both the exhibits and the visitors to the Jefferson county fair tomorrow and the weather, permitting this week will be one long to be remembered. The attractions offered to the patrons of the fair are by far the best of any seen in the state this year. The exhibits too, will be larger and better than ever. Secretary Roessler having received assurances from many people that have heretofore failed to make any entries or exhibits that they would be here with the best in their line.

The following race program has been arranged: Wednesday, September 25.—Afternoon: 2:25 pace, purse $250, and 2:15 pace, purse $300. Thursday, September 26.—Afternoon: 2-year old race, purse $75; 2:25 trot, purse $250; 2:18 trot purse $300. Friday, September 27.—Afternoon: 2:35 trot, purse $200; 2:30 pace, purse $200; free-for-all, trot or pace, purse $300.

HANNA IS DONE "TALKING."

Senator Announces He Will Never Permit Himself to Be Interviewed Again.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 23.—A remark made here by Senator Hanna is regarded as most significant. He was seen at his home by a reporter. The senator was most cordial, but refusal under any circumstances to say a word for publication.

"My days with newspapers are over," he said, significantly. "I shall never permit myself to be interviewed again." This remark is regarded as a sign that the senator has taken the death of McKinley as a fatal blow to his political life and aspirations.

Glued to Be in Jail. Oklahoma City, O. T., Sept. 23.—George Bradshaw, the carpenter who was mobbed here for refusing to walk under the American flag in the McKinley memorial parade, has been brought to Guthrie and placed in the Logan county jail for protection. Bradshaw said: "If this is a free country a man has a right to say what he thinks. No, Czolgosz is not an anarchist; he is a nihilist or insane. He will never be executed."

Landed Lads from Cape Verde. Boston, Mass., Sept. 23.—Indicted on the charge of allowing 110 Portuguese lads from Fayal, Cape Verde Islands, to enter this country in violation of the immigration laws, Antonio H. Rodgers, a New Bedford shipping agent, was taken from his office by United States officers and brought to this city for a hearing. He was released on $3,000 bail and his trial will be arranged later.

Schedules in Big Failure. New York, Sept. 23.—Schedules in the assignment of Henry Marquand & Co., stock brokers at 160 Broadway, who assigned June 23, were filed today in the supreme court. They show liabilities of $9,193,676; nominal assets, $8,992,230; actual assets, $5,099,496.

Dis. While in the Pulpit. Lima, O., Sept. 23.—While addressing the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor at the Disciple Church in the evening William Abbott, an elder in the church, dropped dead.

BURN THE INDIAN'S BODY.

Welded Trail Body in California Sequel to a Love Affair.

San Bernardino, Cal., Sept. 23.—The county officials have received a dispatch from Needles, telling of the murder at that place of an Indian named Jose Arguello by Tome Moreto, a fellow tribesman, and the burning of Arguello's body by the Indians, who afterward attempted to storm the jail where Moreto is confined to lynch the alleged murderer. Arguello was stabbed to death during a quarrel over a Mexican girl. Moreto fled, but was captured. When the officers went for the body of Arguello they discovered that it had been carried off by the Indians who, taking it to the desert, heaped up a pile of brush, upon which they placed the corpse and, while the flames consumed it, danced about the funeral pyre chanting weird drags.

CUBA TO BE FREE ON FIRST OF MAY

General Wood, Returning to Island, Says Natives Can Take Reins of Government Soon.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 24.—General Leonard Wood, military governor of Cuba, left here today by way of Tampa for Havana, Alex. Gonzales accompanied him. The expectation of General Wood is that he will be able to complete arrangements by which the conduct of affairs in the island can be handed over to the Cubans by the first of next May.

The electoral law which the governor brought with him for the inspection of the authorities here is satisfactory to the administration, provided some modifications are made. Secretary Hay has left the city for a visit to his summer home at Sunapee, N. H.

LOGS OF VESSELS FILED IN COURT

Washington, Sept. 23.—When the Schley court of inquiry was resumed this morning the judge advocate offered in evidence the logs of all the vessels engaged in the battle of Santiago or that were of Sampson's fleet, with the exception of the flagship New York. After a discussion as to the exact portions of the logs to be offered it was decided to submit only those portions approved by Schley's counsel.

Commander Hellner, navigator of the Texas during the Spanish war, gave interesting testimony during the morning session. He said when the enemy emerged from the harbor full speed was called for by the captain, but a few moments later half speed was ordered. Hellner suggested and urged full speed, this was ignored and then the captain ordered the engines to stop. He could not understand the action until the captain called his attention to the Brooklyn, which by that time was one hundred and fifty yards from the Texas, but Schley's ship sheered off to sea, thereby avoiding a collision.

THE SPIANS IN A WRECK.

Members of "Female Drummer" Company Hurt on Northern Pacific.

Tacoma, Wash., Sept. 23.—By the collision of two sections of a train on the Northern Pacific line at Lake, a number of persons were injured, one seriously. The cause assigned for the accident is the failure of airbrakes to work.

An old man, named Crankle of Grant's Pass, Ore., was the most seriously injured. He was brought to Yakima and given medical assistance as soon as possible.

Among the members of the "Female Drummer" company who were injured were Albert Elds, leader of the orchestra; Miss Vinna Hawkins, Miss G. Payson Graham, Manager M. Rice and Mrs. George Henry.

Great Fire in Bergen

Christiana, Sept. 23.—Fire destroyed a large section in Bergen last night. Two firemen were killed. The loss is estimated at three million kroner.

H. A. Moltenpah, cashier of the Citizens' bank of Clinton, was in the city today on business.

ROOSEVELT SPOTS A CAMERA FIEND; GIVES HIM A MERITED REBUKE

Photographer Who Attempts a Snap Shot on the Church Steps, is Promptly Called Down.

Washington, D. C., September 23.—President Roosevelt found time yesterday to administer a much needed rebuke to a photographer who attempted to take his picture on the church steps, and the president himself did the talking in a way which delighted those who heard it. President Roosevelt attended church at the little Garman Reformed Chapel at Fifteenth and O streets.

Just as he was on the steps of the church the president noticed the presence of a photographer who held his camera close to the face of the president. Colonel Roosevelt dodged perceptibly to one side and hastily pushed a big policeman in front of the camera. Then the president walked to one side and without anger but characteristic earnestness gave the photographer a stinging lecture on propriety which he will not soon forget.

"This is God's day," said the president. "You are defiling it and disgracing yourself and your profession. If you have not respect for the day and are obliged to work, then at least you must respect God's house. You shall not take pictures on the steps of a church if I can help it."

Then the president lowered his voice and gave the abashed photographer a few words of kindly advice, and the incident was at an end. Those who saw it were delighted with the firmness and unconscious dignity of the president, who has been annoyed from day to day with camera fiends, they having begun on him before he took the oath of office at Buffalo.

The president has been a constant sufferer from the "shots" of camera operators and says he fears them more than any possible bullets of anarchists.

BURGHERS ARE AGAIN VICTORS

Many Recent Reverses in South Africa Vex the British.

DUTCH IN REVOLT

Alarming Reports Reach London of Serious State of Affairs in Cape Colony.

FIGHTING IS ACTIVE

London, Sept. 23.—Lord Kitchener's reports of continued reverses during the past week have spread a gloomy spirit throughout Britain. Immediately following the news of two battles with Boers in which the British lost hundreds of their men and many guns the war office received to day an account of another defeat. Lord Kitchener sends the following dispatch, dated Pretoria, Sept. 22: "Kritzingers, while endeavoring to force a passage of the Orange river near Herschell at 1 o'clock Friday morning, rushed the camp of a party of Lovatt's scouts. He failed to cross the river but the scouts lost heavily. Lieutenant Colonel Andrew Murray and Captain Murray, his adjutant, were killed. Deeply regret the loss of Colonel Murray, who throughout the war had led Lovatt's scouts with great gallantry. Under cover of darkness the Boers managed to carry off a gun. They were promptly followed up and the gun was recovered in a smart engagement in which Kitchener lost two killed and twenty taken prisoners."

A most alarming letter from Cape Town is published by the Daily Express. The writer says: "The Boers are overrunning Cape Colony. They are on both the coast lines and within forty miles of Cape Town. Even the intelligence department does not know how many colonial rebels have taken up arms in the last fortnight. The town guard of Cape Town has been ordered to hand in the magazine rifles and ammunition, ostensibly because these are wanted at the front. Martial law has been served out instead."

In conclusion the writer declares that "the Dutch element in the colony is in revolt and it is useless to disguise the fact."

INSANE ASYLUM BURNED DOWN

Norfolk, Sept. 23.—The state asylum here burned to the ground this morning. The three hundred inmates were all taken out, but many were severely burned. Estimated loss three hundred thousand dollars.

Governor Asks for Troops

Madisonville, Ky., Sept. 23.—The governor has been asked to send troops here on account of the frequent armed attacks being made on the miners in the Reineck mines. The strikers attacked the place this morning firing several hundred shots into the miners' quarters.

ECHOES FROM MEMORIAL WEEK; SIMPLICITY OF CHRISTIAN LIFE

Ringier Sermon Preached from the Pulpit of Court Street M. E. Church by the Rev. W. A. Hall.

Echoes from the great memorial week just past were heard from many of the pulpits yesterday and while few of the sermons preached were primarily on President McKinley's life, the inspiration for many of the sentiments uttered were to be found in the life and death of our martyred president. The beautiful decorations of mourning in the churches are still left in place.

"Aftermath; The Simplicity of the Christian Life as Exemplified by President McKinley," was the subject of a splendid sermon preached from the pulpit of Court street M. E. church by the Rev. W. A. Hall. The congregation was large and the service beautiful. The quartet choir sang several exquisite selections, among them being "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," one of the songs which was sung at President McKinley's funeral at Canton.

Rev. Hall took for his text a part of the 31st verse of the 26th chapter of Acts, "Believe in the Lord, Jesus Christ." He said that the things which are surprisingly simple are sometimes truly profound. The five minutes of silence observed last Thursday when the body of President McKinley was lowered to the grave—how touching; how simple it was. How simple and yet how eloquent that voiceless silence when traffic on the streets and the railroads ceased, all machinery was stopped and people ceased their occupations. They were the profoundest moments Janesville has ever known. So the faith in Christ is both simple and profound, simple and yet in its far-reaching results it is grandeur indeed. William McKinley's faith in God was strong and unwavering.

In order to see the simplicity of the Christian faith it is necessary to ask what is meant by believing in Christ. The text does not mean to believe in him as a figure in history, to believe that he was born at a certain time, that he died certain things, died on the cross and was resurrected. Belief in these two things is only a means to an end. A man might believe all of them and yet not believe in Christ and he might not believe some of them and yet believe in Christ. Jesus was a great teacher and once he took a little child, telling those who were quarrelling about position in Heaven that they must become as a little child.

To be a Christian is to be a child, a conscious child of God. It is to act in its heart attitude toward God as a child towards its mother. A child does not believe in its mother as being born at a certain time, going to school at a certain school and being married at a certain time. It does not even base its belief in what she says. It believes in her, in her love, her compassion, her reliability, her help, in fact in the mother herself. Thus the Christian need not believe in Christ's miracles but in him, self.

The child is the type of the follower of Christ according to his own word. The child believes in the mother and in her mother love and because of this he loves the mother. Because he believes and loves, the child obeys the mother gladly and willingly. Just so the Christian obeys. This is the philosophy of Christianity. How easy it is how simple and how profound. It carried our president through life against the tide and kept him where he could not have kept himself. He fastened himself closely to God and in him the world has seen a Christian live, a Christian achieve and a Christian die.

It is just as simple when applied to everyone. It is easy for every man to be a Christian. A man may say he cannot be a Christian because he does not believe in miracles. He says his mind is logical and will not recognize the possibility of miracles. He says his mind is logical and will not recognize the possibility of miracles. The text does not tell him to believe in miracles. Another says there are stories in the Bible which he cannot believe and again the text does not say to believe in stories. Still another cannot believe the theology that is preached in the churches but Paul did not say a word about believing in theology. There are a good many things and a good many people that men cannot believe in but no one can know the Christ and not believe in him. If we believe in him, love him and serve him we shall step to music through life.

Dr. Manchester says that President McKinley was impatient of any preaching that did not bring forward Christ crucified. A little incident shows the beauty and simplicity of his Christianity. A mischievous page in the house of congress was finally discharged for his pranks and Congressman McKinley searched him out, told him he believed that there was good in him, promised to get him reinstated and asked him to do his best. The boy gave his promise and kept it and today he is a preacher in the West. It was the kindness of a great heart which reached out to save that boy. By that act a whole life was changed. And this can be true of us. If we love Christ more and more we will receive his spirit and that spirit will go out more and more to others. President McKinley's spirit was one of friendliness to all. He smiled into the face of the assassin and prayed that God might forgive him and asked the men not to harm him. A man who did not believe in Christianity had asked the speaker what kind of a man the president could be to show such a spirit when death seemed so near. It was not human nature, it was Christianity.

Everyone can't have position or wealth or move on the same plane with President McKinley but all can have the same faith which makes lives beautiful. Last Thursday in Chicago as the vacant carriage, which the president had occupied on his two visits, moved along in the procession, a little girl forced her way through the crowd and threw a bunch of purple asters into the carriage. It was a beautiful personal tribute but we can pay a more beautiful tribute, if, by the influence of that life we bring our lives to Christ, to whom it will also be a fitting tribute. We are not asked to believe in miracles and doctrines, but in the grandest, most reliable, most loved person who ever lived in this world, Jesus, the Christ, who gave up his life on the cross.

At Presbyterian Church
At the Presbyterian church yesterday morning the Rev. R. A. Adams, D. D., superintendent of missions in the synod of Minnesota, spoke to a large and intensely interested audience on "Our Missions in Porto Rico." Rev. Adams was sent out by the home mission board of the Presbyterian church to investigate the conditions in Porto Rico. He was the first man sent out by a Protestant church of this country and conducted the first Protestant service ever held in the island.

Rev. Adams is an exceptionally fine speaker and his address was especially interesting because it contained so much valuable information obtained while Rev. Adams was in Porto Rico. As an introduction he gave quite an extended history of the island and its people and then told of the great need for missionary work and schools. The people are especially anxious for educational advantages and as an illustration of their eagerness, the speaker told of the opening of one school where 500 children were admitted the first day and 1,500 children were turned away because they could not be accommodated. Rev. Adams also spoke of the acquisition of Porto Rico by the United States and the rejoicing which it occasioned among all of the people of the island except the Spanish who had grown wealthy under the reign of oppression. The balance of the people are very loyal and take off their hats whenever they see the flag. They are eager for American institutions, especially churches and schools and Rev. Adams closed his address with an eloquent appeal for missionary aid for his people.

St. Paul's Lutheran Church
At St. Paul's Lutheran church yesterday morning a special memorial service was held for President McKinley. It having been impossible to arrange for the service on Thursday, the national memorial day, Rev. C. J. Koerner, pastor of the church, preached an eloquent sermon on the life and death of President McKinley and paid glowing tribute to his memory.

BOOKS AND MAGAZINES

The many friends of Cyrus Townsend Brady, the author of The Quiberon Touch, to be published shortly by the Appletons, will be very much interested to hear that in a list compiled by the New York State library of the 250 best books out of 6,000, published in 1900, the works of this popular author lead all others. He is credited with no less than four titles—a novel, a history, a biography and a juvenile biography ("Reuben James," Appletons). Mr. Brady published six books during 1900, and that four of them were placed in this exclusive list is very striking. Furthermore, in this list of 250 out of 6,000 titles, it will be found that Vice President Roosevelt, Andrew Lang, Maurice Thompson, Marion Crawford and G. W. Stevens are each represented by two books, and all other authors by but one. Inasmuch as

Mr. Brady has been faulted by some critics for "writing so many books" it would be easy to fling down the gauntlet to such by calling their attention to the fact that four of these six volumes published in a single year have received such unusual recognition. Mr. Brady therefore stands at the head, both in number and in quality of his work.

The sword used in the poster for The Quiberon Touch (published by the Appletons), and also that worn by the marquis in the frontispiece, are copied from an old French sword which the author obtained on a visit to Quebec undertaken in the preparation of the book. The sword antedates the conquest of Quebec by Wolfe; the blade is beautifully chased, and even after one hundred and fifty years is a rare piece of steel. The hilt is exquisitely engraved, and the markings show that it was made in Paris prior to the middle of the eighteenth century. It was found in the secret recess in the walls of an old manor house on the Beaufort road, and is the most valuable and beautiful of the large collection owned by the author. In preparing for this book, Mr. Brady personally visited every scene described in the Canadian campaign, going over the route of Wolfe's army in detail, and the descriptions, therefore, are topographically what he saw.

In view of recent criticisms of colored pictures of birds made from mounted specimens, Mr. Seton-Thompson's latest in Mr. F. M. Chapman's Bird-Life seem to appear to unusual advantage. Artist, ornithologist and lithographer have here worked together to produce illustrations which should be correct in pose, form and color, and the results have been highly commended by such well-known authorities as Dr. D. G. Elliot, of the Field Columbian Museum, and Prof. J. A. Allen, of the American Museum of Natural History.

Advance orders for 75,000 copies of Hall Caine's latest novel, "The Eternal City," were received by D. Appleton & Company, the publishers, before the date of publication. The first edition of the book was 200,000 copies. D. Appleton & Company have sold of Caine's other books 200,000 copies of "The Christian," 100,000 copies of "The Manxman," 15,000 copies of "The Deemster."

The private life of the Sultan, by Georges Dorys, is announced for immediate publication by D. Appleton & Company. Recent events have imparted a peculiarly timely interest to this book, which is said to give a remarkably intimate insight into the life and character of the Sultan of Turkey.

The October Atlantic is an especially brilliant number. Professor William A. Dunning reviews the series of legislative acts aiming at the disfranchisement of the negro. In his paper on the undoing of reconstruction, which fitsly closes the notable series of Reconstruction papers. There is also an editorial on "Reconstruction and Disfranchisement" which outlines the attitude of the magazine toward this subject.

MAPS AT LOW PRICES

Hixson Rock County Maps at Less Than Cost

The Gazette has a number of the Hixson maps of Rock county published in May, 1900, which will be sold at the low price of $2 each. The price does not cover the cost of production and is much less than they originally sold at. They are made on a scale of 1 1/2 inches to the mile, mounted on cloth 41x47 inches, and cover the county in detail giving cities, villages, sectional lines, number of section, school houses, town houses, cemeteries, roads, streams, number of acres contained and name of owner.

Every land owner, as well as anyone who has occasion to note the geographical condition of the county cannot well afford to be without one.

Regular meeting of the O. E. S. at Masonic hall at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening. A full attendance is desired as business of importance will come before the meeting. The O. E. S. study class will meet at the hall Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock.

TO ELECT THREE DIRECTORS

Annual Meeting Milwaukee Road to Be Held Next Saturday

The annual election of the officers of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad will be held in Milwaukee next Saturday, and it is expected that the present officers will be re-elected. Death has caused three vacancies in the directorship. J. Ogden Armour will probably be elected in place of P. D. Armour as he has represented him since his death. The other two new directors are not yet announced.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local application, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When the tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by colds. When the catarrh of the mucous membrane is destroyed, hearing is restored. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that can be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

TALK ON FAIRS

Editor Gazette: I see it has been recommended that the legislature appropriate $100,000 to the state fair. Now it seems to me that that would be a very foolish thing to do. I think that every fair should be self supporting; that is, with the per cent. of the premiums that the state gives and the help of the city and surrounding country where the fair is held. We started the Rock County fair at Evansville three years ago and started on a small scale and had everything to contend with. We commenced on the ground floor. Lots of people said we could not make it win, but with lots of work and lots of pluck we have made it win. The next year we did better and this year our fair would do credit to any county in the state and it has paid out every time and we are now in good shape for another year. Now if Milwaukee wants the state fair let them work for it with brain and muscle and then if they can't make it win, turn it over to the Rock County association. I see Professor Henry says that the state fair is a great educator of the people. That is all right but I think county fairs are much more so. Let us see what proportion of the common people attend the state fair. Not more than one or two from a family and lots of families are not represented at all because they cannot afford it. Not many farmers are too poor to take their families and drive to the county fair, take their dinner and stay all day and have a good time and all that it will cost them is 25 cents admission, while many of these people cannot afford to go to the state fair especially when it is held clear to one side of the state. If any fairs are entitled to state money I think it should be the county fairs. Respectfully yours,
BYRON CAMPBELL,

JANESVILLE MEN ON THE PROGRAM

Sixty-First Annual Meeting of the Wisconsin Congregational Association in Milwaukee Oct. 1.

An interesting programme has been arranged for the sixty-first annual meeting of the Wisconsin Congregational association. Unlike the majority of the conventions of this character it will not be confined to dry business, but there will be a topic discussed each day in which there is a live interest. The convention will meet Tuesday, October 1, at Plymouth Congregational church in Milwaukee and will continue three days.

Tuesday evening an hour will be given to short addresses in behalf of the Woman's Missionary union, The Rev. W. S. Ament of the North China mission, who had the famous controversy with Mark Twain, will lecture upon Chinese missions.

Wednesday morning the Bible school will be the topic which will be discussed by F. J. Harwood of Appleton, H. J. Cunningham of Janesville, Amos P. Wilder of Madison, W. E. Starr of Fond du Lac, J. M. Hawley of LaCrosse, J. J. Maple of this city and the Rev. G. C. Haun, Wisconsin Home Missions will be discussed at a afternoon session by Mrs. E. G. Updike, Madison.

Thursday morning J. M. Whitehead of Janesville will present a report from the committee on foreign missions.

As the Rev. Judson Tinsworth, who has had charge of the arrangements for the convention is about to go to England, the Rev. George H. Ide will take charge of the final preparatory work for the convention.

THE HIGH ROLLERS AT MYERS GRAND

The 'High Rollers' come to the Myers Grand Saturday, September 28, and lovers of the beautiful and of burlesque will have a genuine treat. The High Rollers have had a triumphal progress all along the line. Their two burlesques, "The High Rollers at the Paris Exposition" and "Benny Her" proving big winners. Adle Carry, one of the greatest favorites on the vaudeville stage, heads the bevy of High Roller beauties, each of whom are a style and fashion of loveliness all her own. Miss Cary is qualified for the leadership of the beautiful girls to be seen with this company, fair of face, and endowed with a well-cultured voice and a queenly carriage, truly a High Roller in appearance and in burlesque. She is supported and surrounded by a company of artists who have established reputations, each in their own line, and, as a consequence, the program presented at each performance is a go from curtain-rise to curtain-fall.

My heart and hand another claimed His plea had come too late. It's ever thus with people without pluck and vim. Take 'Rocky Mountain Tea, don't get left again. Smith's pharmacy.

WILL EXTEND THE STREET RAILWAY

George J. Hurd Files an Application for a Franchise, with the City Clerk.

Saturday afternoon Superintendent George J. Hurd filed an application with the city clerk for a franchise to build, operate and maintain an electric line in the city of Janesville, to be an extension of his present line. The proposed extension will start at the intersection of Milwaukee avenue and Jackson street and extend easterly on Milwaukee avenue to the city limits. This would give the company a connection with the line to Delavan, Elkhorn and Geneva City by the way of Johnston.

The extension already asked for towards the east on Eastern avenue would give a connection with the same line if it comes in from Delavan by way of Emerald Grove. Mr. Hurd has already asked for extensions of the present line west on Magnolia avenue for Madison avenue to the city limits near the golf grounds and north on North Bluff street and the Fulton road to the city limits. The granting of these applications for extensions gives the Janesville Street railway control of almost all the roads leading into the city from every direction where an interurban line might seek to enter. Within the next two years Janesville will be connected by a number of electric lines with all adjoining towns. The Beloit, Delavan Lake and Janesville will be in operation by the first of April, 1902, and the other two roads that have already applied for franchises will be well under way by next summer.

TO ALLOW WOMEN RIGHTS OF LAYMEN

Wisconsin Methodists Will Discuss the Matter at Annual Conference at Ripon on Oct. 9.

The annual Methodist Episcopal conference at Ripon, October 9, will be one of the most important conferences ever held by the church in Wisconsin. A new constitution is to be voted upon, the most interesting article of which relates to female members of the church and allows them a voice in the general conference, which meets once in four years. For sixteen years the question of allowing women the rights of laymen has been agitated and fought for and against in Wisconsin, and each time the question came to a vote it has been defeated.

The last general conference in Chicago a year ago was full of surprises, inasmuch as the time limit of pastorate was taken away, and it was voted by a big majority to allow women the rights of suffrage. This question has to receive a favorable vote from three-fourths of the ministers in the country or under the jurisdiction of the general conference for ratification. The ministers have a chance to vote on the question at the annual conferences, and at the conference beginning October 9 the Wisconsin ministers will voice their sentiments on the measure.

It is the opinion of many ministers that woman's suffrage will be voted by a large majority, as the idea is in line with the increased rights in all ways given women during the past few years, and besides, the English speaking conference has always been favorable toward the question. Among the German Methodist churches the idea has always met with disfavor, and from that quarter a strong opposition is expected to arise.

Spring Valley Union Men Vote to Drive Out the "Reds."
Spring Valley, Ill., Sept. 23.—Spring Valley went on record as opposed to anarchy and anarchists. A mass meeting of 3,000 citizens was held in the city square. There were several speeches by local speakers, all condemning the acts of those who teach anarchy. The principal speech was made by Rev. Mr. Poldue, pastor of the Congregational church, who read a set of resolutions prepared by himself, in which he called upon the miners' union and all labor bodies in Spring Valley to expel all anarchists from their ranks and also branding all who employ such persons as being in sympathy with anarchy. The resolutions were unanimously adopted. Resolutions were also passed advocating that the anarchist paper published here be suppressed immediately and its editor be forced to leave town.

MINISTER LIKENED TO CAIN.
Board of Trade of Harrisburg, Pa., Condemns Rev. Dr. McKinley.
Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 23.—Resolutions condemning Rev. Dr. Silas O. Swallow, a Methodist minister of this city, for an attack on the late President McKinley in a recent issue of the Pennsylvania Methodistist, of which he is editor, were adopted at a public meeting held in the board of trade rooms. The resolutions state that Dr. Swallow "deserves to be pilloried as an enemy to the United States and that his name should only be mentioned with those of Judas and Cain, Benedict Arnold, Wilkes Booth, Guiteau, Czolgosz and the other traitors, assassins, liars and vile traducers of character who have blackened the pages of the world's history." Dr. Swallow was the prohibition nominee for governor in 1898 and the nominee for president of the Christian league in the last national campaign.

JEW TO OBSERVE ATONEMENT DAY

Day Will Be Spent in Prayer in Synagogue and Temple, Closing with a Feast After Sunset.

In every synagogue and temple in this country today reform and orthodox Jews will observe the ancient feast of Yom Kippur, or the day of atonement. The more religious of the race will spend the entire day in fasting and prayer, closing their devotions at sunset. The observance follows the Mosaic command that Jews shall do no work on this day that he priest may make atonement for them and "cleanse them of their sins."

Many will follow the ancient custom of prayer at the banks of the river, emulating the early scenes along the River Jordan. These prayers will begin early this morning after the services in the synagogues, and will continue through the day. It is not uncommon on this day for conservative Jews to wrap themselves in their talitot or praying shawl and stand in one spot for hours engaged in their devotions.

For more than thirty centuries this one fast prescribed by the law of Moses has been rigidly observed by the Jews of every land. It is considered the chief day in the Jewish calendar. The fast ends with sunset and a feast supper marks the beginning of the joyful time which follows the day of atonement.

A Bad Disease

There is a certain disease that has come down to us through many centuries and is older than history itself, yet very few outside of those who have learned from bitter experience know anything of its nature or characteristics. At first a little ulcer or sore appears, then glands of the neck or groin swell; pimples break out on the breast, back or some other part of the body and fill with yellow pustular matter; the mouth and throat become sore and the tongue is at all times badly coated. Headaches are frequent, and muscles and joints throb and hurt, especially during damp, rainy weather. These are some of the symptoms of that most loathsome of all diseases, Contagious Blood Poison.

This strange poison does not affect all alike; some physicians are literally eaten up with it within a short time after being inoculated, while others show but slight evidence of any taint for a long time after exposure, but its tendency in every case is to complete destruction of the physical system, sooner or later. S. S. S. is a safe and infallible cure for this bad disease—the only antidote for this specific poison. It cures Contagious Blood Poison in every form and stage thoroughly and permanently. S. S. S. contains no Mercury, Potash or other harmful minerals, but is strictly and entirely a vegetable remedy, and we offer $1,000.00 reward for proof that it is not.

OUR MEDICAL which was established years ago, is doing a noble work in relieving suffering. Give our physicians a short history of your case and get their advice. This will cost you nothing, and what you say will be held in strictest confidence. With their help and a copy of our book on Contagious Blood Poison you can manage your own case and cure yourself at home.

TO ESTABLISH A KINDERGARTEN; MEETING TO BE HELD TOMORROW

Movement Under Way by Public Spirited Citizens to Provide a School for Small Children—Plans for the Project Are Under Discussion.

The first step towards the establishment of a public kindergarten has been taken and while the promoters do not hope to do all that they would like to do this year, it is expected that the movement which has already been started will broaden out until the city is provided with a few public kindergartens for which such a great need exists.

At a meeting of prominent ladies of the city, who are known to be vitally interested in the kindergarten movement, held at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Robt. C. Denison, a plan was devised for the establishment of a kindergarten which will accommodate forty children and which will open about the middle of the coming October and continue for seven months. This is to be supported by a kindergarten association, the membership in which is to include all interested people who are willing to contribute $3 or more for the promotion of the worthy subject.

A kindergarten in Janesville is a necessity. Each year the mothers of little people bemoan the fact that their educations cannot begin until they are old enough to be sent to the public schools. This summer, unbeknown to each other, the people determine that, if possible, there should be a kindergarten here this winter. The people were Mrs. J. L. Bostwick and Rev. Robert C. Denison. Mrs. Bostwick's plan was the usual and at first thought the only practical one of a private kindergarten. She took on her own shoulders the burden of interesting other mothers, investigated the subject thoroughly, finding out the approximate expense of the undertaking and then securing twenty women who agreed to support the kindergarten by sending their little ones to it.

Rev. Denison's plan was a broader one, his wish being to see free kindergartens supported by the city as the other schools are, and falling in that, by philanthropic citizens. He was present at the last meeting of the board of education to ask the school commissioners to agree to furnish the permanent supplies if an association should be formed to contribute the money for the running expenses. This the school board felt unable to do at the present time. Consequently, Rev. Denison and Mrs. Bostwick have combined forces and the result will be a compromise between a private kindergarten and one free to all the children of the city. The latter, though desirable, is impossible at present. The plan for the support of the proposed kindergarten was formulated at the meeting held at the parsonage and met with approval and hearty endorsement of the ladies, who conferred with Rev. Denison.

The expense of a kindergarten is quite heavy, especially for the first year. The plan is to form a kindergarten association with the object of accommodating forty children this year. The twenty mothers whom Mrs. Bostwick secured will be given an opportunity to secure places for their children by joining the association and paying $20 each, this sum being considered less than the private school would have cost them. Then it will be necessary to secure one hundred members for the association who will pay $3 each for the support of the kindergarten. It is expected that these members will be prompted by philanthropy and many of them will be people who have no little ones themselves, but who are interested in education. One prominent business man, whose daughters are grown to young ladyhood, has voluntarily pledged himself to give $20 and all members will be privileged to contribute any sum not under $3. Twenty children will be admitted free. It is the hope and expectation of the promoters to make the kindergarten a permanent institution. Beloit has two buildings, one on each side of the river, which are entirely devoted to kindergarten work. They are a part of the public school system, supported by the city and the people of Beloit take great interest in them and are very proud of them.

A meeting for perfecting the organization of the local kindergarten association will be held in the parlors of the Congregational church, Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. All people who are interested are urged to be present at the meeting.

MISS M'GINNIS IS FINED $10 AND COSTS

She Goes to Jail in Default of the Money to Pay For a Period of Thirty Days.

Miss Matilda McGinnis, the young lady formerly employed by the Isabel company, who was arrested on the 16th for stealing a silk dress, a silk wrapper, a diamond ring, a pair of cuff buttons and an alligator leather grip from Miss Agnes E. Dexter, her room mate, was before the municipal court this afternoon for examination. She pleaded guilty to the information filed against her by District Attorney Jackson.

Before imposing sentence on her Judge Fifield asked her if she had anything to say in her own behalf. She would make no statement but in answer to questions said she was twenty-one years of age and had never before been arrested for a crime.

The judge stated that Miss Dexter, the injured party, was anxious not to appear against her and wished to give her another chance and that on motion of the district attorney, he would fix the lightest punishment possible for the crime in hopes that she would never again be arrested. He fixed a fine of $10 and costs, in all $14.25, or thirty days in the county jail. Miss McGinnis, not having the money, went to jail. A. E. Matheson appeared for the defendant.

CLAIMED BY DEATH.

Alois Waleitz Dead
Death came to Alois Waleitz at Beloit yesterday as the result of an operation for appendicitis. Deceased was twenty-nine years of age and was an enterprising young mechanic. He had many friends in this city where he resided three weeks ago when he went to Beloit to work in one of the factories. He was taken sick soon afterwards. His remains were brought to this city last evening and taken to the home of his uncle, Anton Waleitz, 502 North Bluff street. Deceased was a widower and leaves no family. Funeral services will be held from St. Mary's church on Wednesday morning and the interment will be in Mount Olivet cemetery.

Mrs. Simon Kuster Dead
Mrs. Simon Kuster, fifty-seven years of age, the wife of Simon Kuster, passed away yesterday morning at her home, 259 Locust street, from an attack of heart failure, with which she had been troubled since last May. The deceased has resided in this city for many years and was a woman whose many kind ways had made for her a large circle of close friends who will be pained to hear of her death. She leaves to mourn her taking away a sorrowing husband, a family of five girls and three boys as follows: Edward Kuster, St. Louis, Mo.; Sabina and Peter Kuster of this city; Mrs. Win. Trotter of Kan.; Mrs. Louis Wallich of Janesville, and Misses Rosie, Cecelia and Maurie Kuster of this city, who have the sympathy of the entire community. The funeral will be held from St. Patrick's church on Tuesday morning at 8:30 o'clock. The interment will be in Mount Olivet cemetery.

Knights of Columbus
A lodge of the Knights of Columbus was instituted yesterday at Beloit with imposing ceremonies. About fifty knights from this city were present and took part in the installation. They left here yesterday morning on a special train which had on board about forty knights from Madison and an equal number from Milwaukee. A large delegation was present from Rockford. In the evening after the ceremonies were completed one of the finest banquets ever given in Southern Wisconsin was served to the members of the order and assembled guests. Professor John Smith's orchestra was present and furnished the music for the exercises and at the banquet. Among those from this city who took part in the proceedings were Rev. J. J. Collins, Rev. W. A. Goebel and Chief of Police John W. Hogan.

Smith-Allen Wedding
Mrs. Clemena Smith and Charles W. Allen, both of this city, were happily married at the Court street M. E. church parsonage this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. A. Hall. Both bride and groom have been residents of this city for several years and have many friends who will wish them much happiness.

HIGH MASS FOR FATHER STRICKNER

Solemn high mass for the late Rev. Father George Strickner will be held at St. Mary's church tomorrow morning at ten o'clock. The funeral service will be a most impressive one, about thirty priests from different parts of the state being in attendance. This most sacred service of the church, was held at Monroe, where Father Strickner died, this morning, the priests of the state assisting. Rev. Father W. A. Goebel, who was an intimate friend of the deceased priest, was among those present.

The remains and the funeral party will reach this city at five o'clock this afternoon and at the close of the funeral service tomorrow morning all that is mortal of the beloved priest will be laid at rest in Mount Olivet cemetery.

A Charming Party
A charming party was given Saturday evening by Miss Emma Russell at her home, 120 East Milwaukee street, in honor of her cousin, Mrs. Joseph McCabe, of Walla Walla, Wash.

The guests were about a dozen of Mrs. McCabe's lady friends and the reunion was a most delightful one. The evening was spent in playing cards, the handsome prizes being won by Mrs. J. P. Baker and Mrs. C. W. Putnam. One of the delectable and most tempting of luncheon was prettily served, and pleasant memories of the very enjoyable evening will long be cherished by the ladies who were partakers of Miss Russell's hospitality.

Mrs. Joseph McCabe, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Susan Russell, returned to her home in Walla Walla, Wash., yesterday.

POACHERS FATALLY SHOT.

Farmer of Cornell, Ill., Kills One and Fatally Hurts Another.
Pontiac, Ill., Sept. 23.—E. G. Richter, who lives near the village of Cornell, shot and killed James Thompson and fatally wounded Sam England because the two men were hunting and gathering nuts on his farm. When Richter came upon the hunters he ordered them off his place. A wordy quarrel ensued, as the result of which Richter drew a revolver and shot Thompson in the head. England started to run, but before he had gone far he, too, was shot down, and it is feared he cannot live through the day. The two men were taken care of by neighbors who heard the shooting. Richter tried to make his escape, but Sheriff Talbot and Deputy Hoke were at once sent for and soon overtook the fugitive. He was brought to Pontiac and placed in jail. He was much frightened and begged the sheriff to protect him from mob violence. Richter was undoubtedly pleading insanity, as he has twice been in the asylum at Kankakee. He has been considered a dangerous character, and several complaints have been made against him by neighbors. His wife too, has been in the asylum at Kankakee, and about five years ago a brother killed his mother and committed suicide while in jail awaiting trial.

Leap From Burning Boat.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Sept. 23.—The latest report of the blowing up of the gasoline ferry-boat A. C. Boney, running between Elizabeth and Palestine on the Little Kanawha river shows that the accident happened just after the boat had been loaded with passengers from the morning train at Palestine. The following were seriously injured: William Webb, Parkersburg, captain of the boat; A. S. Woodyard, Palestine; Harvey Thorne, Palestine; H. N. Hopkins, Palestine. The rest of the passengers jumped into the river. Most of them escaped with slight injuries, but as every one has not yet been accounted for some of the passengers may have been drowned. The boat was propelled by gasoline, which escaped and ignited, causing the explosion. The vessel was completely burned.

Thirty-two Burned to Death.

Bucharest, Sept. 23.—The collision yesterday at Palota between the Vienna express and the petroleum train was a most serious affair. In a few seconds the whole area of the collision became a huge lake of burning petroleum. Trees and everything inflammable within an area of a quarter of a square mile were destroyed. There were some ghastly scenes. A girl was burned to death in sight of both her parents, who escaped. M. Dinu, a Roumanian millionaire, got his foot jammed in the wreckage and begged one of the train guards to sever the foot with an ax, promising him a large reward if he would do so. Before the guard could help him he sank back into the flames and was burned to death. Most of the thirty-two who perished were burned to death.

Ties Up Freight Trains.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 23.—A strike of forty switchmen employed by the Kentucky and Indiana bridge across the Ohio river here has caused a tie-up of freight trains which affects eight railroads more or less seriously. About 1,300 freight cars were sidetracked at New Albany and Youngstown and in this city. The strikers' complaint is that they are not being paid sufficient wages. The roads which are directly affected by the strike are the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern, the Monon and the Southern. Grand Master Hawley of the National Switchmen's Union is in this city to look after the strike. The bridge company is trying to get switchmen from Chicago.

Find Ore Under a Town.

Duluth, Minn., Sept. 23.—An extensive deposit of iron ore has been located under the new town of Chisholm, on Longyear lake, Mesaba range. The town was started only six months ago and has 600 inhabitants. James Sullivan and W. T. Bailey have obtained the mineral right and will develop a mine under the town. The earth and rock cap on top of the ore deposit is sixty-five feet deep. The ore is of high quality. It may be necessary to move the town wholly or in part to develop the mine.

General Funston Recovering.

Manila, Sept. 23.—General Frederick Funston, who a week ago was seized with a violent attack of appendicitis and whose condition for a few days gave rise to feelings of alarm, seems in a fair way to recover. He has been in a hospital here since the beginning of his illness. An operation was found necessary and it has been announced that it has been successfully performed. General Funston has shown no unfavorable symptoms and the attending surgeons feel confident that he will get well.

Evidence of a Lake Disaster.

St. Joseph, Mich., Sept. 23.—Evidence that some unknown pleasure sailing yacht is now helplessly adrift in Lake Michigan or that the craft has foundered and crew perished during the heavy gale that prevailed on the lake was brought about by the finding of a broken spar by the life-saving crew of this city.

Shot Kills His Small Sister.

Marshfield, Wis., Sept. 23.—While handling a loaded shotgun the nine-year-old son of John Adler accidentally discharged the weapon, the load hitting his eleven-year-old sister, who was standing near. The shot entered the child's head and neck, terribly mangle the face and practically tearing the head from the shoulders.

TRAIN PLUNGES INTO CANYON.

One Killed and Eighteen Injured in an Accident in Colorado.
Como, Colo., Sept. 23.—A runaway freight train on the dreaded Kenosha hill on the South Park railway, caused the death of Webster Ballinger, the engineer, and injured eighteen employees of the railway. As the train crossed the crest for the plunge down the spiral descending into Platte canyon the brakes failed to work and the emergency call for hand brakes startled the crew and employees. Instantly laborers and brakemen were scrambling for the brakes, as they knew their lives depended on quick action. In the meantime the train had gained a terrific impetus and at Sister curve, where the men could look straight down at the town of Webster, the train flew the track. The engine pitched 300 feet into the gulch.

Begin Revolution in Brazil.

Rio de Janeiro, Sept. 23.—A revolution has been declared in the southern part of the state of Matto-Grosso, near the frontier of Paraguay, against the government of the state. The rebels have occupied Bella Vista, San Carlos and Taruma. The government forces, assisted by the gunboat Carica, succeeded in expelling the rebels from those points. A brother of the governor of the state who was persecuted by the insurgents and who succeeded in crossing the frontier and entering Paraguay has arrived at Asuncion.

Bond Sale.

To the Citizens of Janesville: By an ordinance of the City Council passed July 22, 1901, the Mayor was authorized to sell 130 bonds of $500 each, total $65,000 for the purchase of a site for the library and City Hall, and the erection of the latter.

These bonds are now ready for issue and will be sold as of date October 1. Such bonds are usually sold in the open market to the highest bidder, the entire issue going to one person or firm. Such a sale of necessity bars out the small investors and throws the entire issue into the hands of large dealers or banks, who alone can command the necessary capital. The small investor can then secure the bonds only by paying a commission to the dealer. Believing that it is for the best interests of the city of Janesville that these bonds should be distributed as much as possible among her citizens, I take this method of offering them to the public. The bonds draw 4 per cent interest. They will be sold to subscribers at a price to net them 3 1/2 per cent interest. Subscriptions can be filed with the City Treasurer up to 12 o'clock noon, September 30, 1901.

In order that investors may fully understand the price they will be required to pay for said bonds, I give in the table below the number of bonds, the face value, the interest they bear, the date of maturity and the price at which they will be sold.

Six bonds, $500.00 each 4 per cent interest, due November 1, 1902; price, $502.42 each.
Six bonds, $500.00 each, 4 per cent interest, due November 1, 1903; price $504.67 each.
Six bonds, $500.00 each 4 per cent interest, due November 1, 1904; price $506.78 each.
Seven bonds, $500.00 each 4 per cent interest, due November 1, 1905; price $508.77 each.
Seven bonds, $500.00 each 4 per cent interest, due November 1, 1906; price $510.63 each.
Seven bonds, $500.00 each 4 per cent interest, due November 1, 1907; price $512.39 each.
Seven bonds, $500.00 each 4 per cent interest, due November 1, 1908; price $514.05 each.
Seven bonds, $500.00 each 4 per cent interest, due November 1, 1909; price $515.62 each.
Seven bonds, $500.00 each 4 per cent interest, due November 1, 1910; price $517.12 each.
Seven bonds, $500.00 each 4 per cent interest, due November 1, 1911; price $518.62 each.
Seven bonds, $500.00 each 4 per cent interest, due November 1, 1912; price $519.86 each.
Seven bonds, $500.00 each 4 per cent interest, due November 1, 1913; price $521.12 each.
Seven bonds, $500.00 each 4 per cent interest, due November 1, 1914; price $522.34 each.
Seven bonds, $500.00 each 4 per cent interest, due November 1, 1915; price $523.49 each.
Seven bonds, $500.00 each 4 per cent interest, due November 1, 1916; price $524.60 each.
Seven bonds, $500.00 each 4 per cent interest, due November 1, 1917; price $525.65 each.
Seven bonds, $500.00 each 4 per cent interest, due November 1, 1918; price $526.66 each.
Seven bonds, $500.00 each 4 per cent interest, due November 1, 1919; price $527.62 each.
Seven bonds, $500.00 each 4 per cent interest, due November 1, 1920; price $528.54 each.

As it is my desire to distribute these bonds as widely as possible among bona fide subscribers, I reserve the right to limit the amount sold to any one subscriber to $5,000. In case all the bonds are not sold as above I further reserve the right to determine which bonds, as to date of maturity, shall be sold as it is desirable that the bonds left after above sale should be as nearly as possible of the same maturity. All bonds not sold as above will be advertised and sold in the usual way.

There can be no question as to the value and security of above bonds as the assessed value of the property in this city is over $9,000,000, and the present bonded indebtedness is but $42,000.

I will be pleased to give any further information possible with regard to above bonds to those contemplating subscribing for same.

VICTOR P. RICHARDSON, Mayor.

Fainting Spells

Are peculiar to women. Men rarely faint. Many women are liable to what they term "fainting spells," and this liability is always most marked at the monthly period. This alone is sufficient to connect the "fainting spell" with a deranged or diseased condition of the womanly organs. The use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures irregularity, heals inflammation and ulceration, and stops the drains which weaken the body. It builds up the nervous system, increases the vital powers, and so removes the common causes of faintness in women. There is no alcohol in "Favorite Prescription;" neither does it contain opium, cocaine, nor any other narcotic.

"It gives me much pleasure," writes Miss Ella Sapp, of Janesville, Wis., "to thank Dr. Pierce for the great good received from the use of his Favorite Prescription. I had suffered for three years or more at monthly periods. It seemed as though I could not stand on my feet without fainting; had given up all hope of ever being cured, when one of my friends insisted upon my trying Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. With but little faith I tried it, and before I had taken half a bottle I felt better, had better appetite and slept better. Now I have taken two bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and am happy to say I am entirely cured, and all done in two months' time, when all other medicines had failed to do any good."

Keep the liver healthy by using Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

Shoes and Clothing. Two Complete Depts.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN? The above was copied from an ancient obelisk near Alexandria, Egypt. No one knows its meaning. Every man ought to know the meaning of the symptoms of nervous debility.

It's a serious matter when the strength of manhood falls; when overwork or business worries sap all energy, when memory weakens, and the very brain begins to decay.

PALMO TABLETS restore all elements necessary to rebuild the system. They create boundless energy, firm muscles, a clear, bright brain, and perfect strength.

BORT, BAILEY & CO. A NOVELTY IN WOOL WAIST CLOTHES

WE have just opened a case of the most beautiful novelties in Wool Waist Clothes. They come just in waist patterns, no two alike. Each pattern contains two and one-yards of fine soft wool material and on the edge is woven a most beautiful Persian band, these bands harmonize in color with the goods and the effect is very striking.

They come in all the new fall colorings

Including the Staple and the Pastel Shades

THIS is an imported novelty and is taken like wild fire in the larger cities. It is a happy idea and recommends itself instantly on sight. So quickly did the larger retailers recognize its merit, that the importers are already oversold. One retail house on State Street sold over six hundred patterns last Monday. It is a New, Nice, Nobby Novelty.

IMPROVE THE CITY SCHOOL GROUNDS

Full Report of the Committee Awarding Prizes to the Janitor and the Best Kept School Yard.

The committee appointed at the last meeting of the Twilight Club, to award the banner and prize of $10 offered by Professor D. D. Mayne for greatest improvement in school grounds in the city of Janesville, beg leave to report as follows:

Those appointed to serve on the committee were Edwin G. Fife, chairman, T. O. Howe and A. E. Matheson. Soon after their appointment, the committee appointed by W. S. Jeffris, president of the school board, and Professor Mayne, visited the several school grounds and buildings in the city, and made observations as to the conditions at that time. During the summer the individual members of the committee noticed evidence of improvement as they went about the city. Shortly before the opening of the schools this fall the committee again made the rounds of the school buildings and grounds, accompanied by Mr. W. S. Jeffris and determined upon the janitor who, in their judgment, is entitled to the prize of $10 and the school entitled to the banner.

Let it be understood that the banner and prize were offered for the greatest improvements, and not for the best appearing surroundings. The committee compared conditions which existed at the time of the last visit, with those that existed when the first visit was made in the spring. Some janitors had very little with which to start, and worked under unfavorable conditions. Other janitors had more with which to commence and had more to encourage them in the way of fertile soil and more satisfactory conditions in other ways. It is the opinion of the committee that the janitor and school to whom the prize and banner should be given, not only made the greatest improvement, but that the grounds and buildings were in the best condition at the close of the season.

Little seems to have been attempted at the High School. This was doubtless largely due to the fact that the grounds of the High School are very limited. There were some urns containing flowers and out upon the easterly side of the building and along the walk leading to the door.

The janitor of Lincoln school had to work under very unfavorable conditions. The soil is not suitable for lawn, and because of the close proximity of the grounds to the business part of the city, the grounds have been used as a thoroughfare by pedestrians in going and coming. There were no window boxes. A wire fence had been erected on two sides of the grounds for the purpose of preventing the crossing of pedestrians. Vines were planted along this fence. No vines were observed upon the school building. It is to be noted that there is a walk around the building close to the walls, which probably prevented the planting of vines in this way. Castor beans and nasturtiums had been planted about the grounds.

At the Webster school there were window boxes, and vines on the school building, fences and outbuildings. There were also vines on some of the trees. Some old and unsightly outbuildings, that were there at the time of the first visit of the committee, had been removed during the summer, much to the improvement of the surroundings. The yard and lawns about the school house were very much improved, and on the whole, there was evidence that much labor had been expended and considerable pains taken. The janitor here accomplished much under unfavorable conditions.

At the Jackson School, which is the new school building in Spring Brook, the committee was highly pleased and delighted at what they saw. There were window boxes and vines in abundance, also nasturtiums and other flowers. At the time of the visit of the committee the vegetation and the general effect was very satisfactory. The committee is informed that the improvements here are largely due to the thought and labor of Miss Alice Fenton, the teacher, and for this work the committee desires especially to commend her.

At the Douglas School there were not many evidences of improvement. There were two flower beds, which it is the impression of the committee were there before. There were few window boxes and some vines along the fences, and also some vines at the bases of the walls of the building. The yard was bare. At the Grant School we found window boxes, and vines along the fences about the yard. There were many castor bean plants, and from the front side of the building, the effect was agreeable and attractive. Evidently, much time had been expended upon the front yard, and on the front side of the school house. The only criticism that the committee would offer with respect to the Grant School, is that the rear of the building and yard seems to have been neglected, and the greater part of the labor expended upon the front side.

At the Washington school was found Boston ivy and a number of flower beds, some of which, although not all, were there before. There was a large number of flowers. The evidence of improvement and thought and labor here were satisfactory.

At the Jefferson School there were flower beds, largely in rows, along the walks. Vines had been started in jars, and there were morning glories in some abundance. Here, there was also evidence of much careful thought and labor to beautify the surroundings.

At the Adams School there were vines in abundance about the school buildings, and vines on the fences and outbuildings. There were flower beds and window boxes. There was much woodbine. In the gravel, pebbles and stone. The committee was of the unanimous opinion that the greatest improvement had been made here, and that the buildings and grounds had also the neatest and most attractive appearance. The banner and prize, therefore, have been awarded to the Adams School and Mr. R. P. Young, the janitor of the Adams School. Arrangements will be made to present the banner and the $10 in recognition of the faithful service of janitor, pupils and teacher.

Let it be noted that the past season has been a trying one for lawns and vegetation. At some of the school buildings the janitors were without water, and therefore could not keep the vegetation fresh and green and much less could they improve their lawns and yards.

The members of the committee wish to say that this work cannot be carried on alone by the janitors, but that the teachers and scholars and public in general must assist, and they express the hope that the students in the various schools will do all they can to aid in beautifying their surroundings; at least, that they will be especially careful not to injure what has been done nor interfere with improvements in the future. They are informed that the pupils and teachers have worked with the janitors during the past season.

The members of the committee also feel that a splendid beginning has been made, and that we should continue the work. They also express the hope that such improvements will not only characterize our school buildings and yards, but that this valuable work will be done about the homes of the pupils, along the banks of our river, and wherever it can be done to bring about more beautiful and attractive conditions generally throughout our city.

The members of the committee, therefore, offer two prizes, the first in the sum of $10 and the second in the sum of $5; the first prize to be given to the janitor whose school building and grounds are in the best and most attractive condition, and the second prize to be awarded in the same manner. It is assumed that the banner will go to the school winning the first prize. A committee of three is to be appointed, at the first meeting of the Twilight Club to award the prizes. With a view to accuracy in the judgment of the committee and in the awarding of the prizes, we suggest that there be ten points, said points to be distributed as follows: Permanent vines and shrubs, four; lawn, one; flower beds and rockeries, one; window boxes, one; flowering plants, one; yearly vines, one; and general appearance, one.

And finally, the members of the committee venture to suggest that citizens interested in the appearance of our city offer prizes for improvements in other respects.

Dated at Janesville, Wisconsin, this 20th day of September, 1901.
EDWIN G. FIFE,
T. O. HOWE,
A. E. MATHESON.

A Woman Of the South

The selection, eminently fitting, of Miss Kate Gordon as secretary of the National American Woman Suffrage Association recalls the public services she and some brave comrades rendered to their home city, New Orleans. The old Creole City, was founded in 1717. It changed hands from French to Spanish and from Spanish back to French again, and, whichever race had it, the sanitation seemed a little worse than it was under the preceding rule. The lack of drainage and sewerage continued even after the city became part of the United States under the Louisiana purchase.

Louisiana, however, some years ago took a step forward. That was the passing of a law permitting women property owners to vote on all propositions to raise public revenues by levying a tax on real estate. This law was the redemption of New Orleans and the means of making it a beautiful, terests. Included also the sanitation, morality and good government of the city in which she lived. Miss Kate inherited these public spirited ideas as a duck inherits the knowledge how to swim.

The fight that meant, if successful, the cleaning up and rendering healthful of the whole ancient city was a great fight. The party of progress was headed by the mayor of New Orleans, Mr. Flower. It was desperately opposed by a large number of persons. Perhaps they thought they would take cold if their city got a housecleaning. It was odd, too, but the very hunkers who opposed the tax levy for sewerage the city were the same hunkers that had opposed the women property owners' voting law. Conservative in one thing, conservative in all things, the case seemed hopeless, for the levy could not be carried without the ballot of the women and they—well, the very thought of voting was a specter of horror to them.

Then it was that Kate Gordon, a shining young St. George on the woman's side, entered the lists against the great dragon, Old Foggy. She herself called a mass meeting of citizens—men who were citizens and women who were half citizens. Mayor Flower presided, and some of the most influential gentlemen of Louisiana, were upon the platform to encourage by their presence the girl speaker. She made an address which is talked of to this day in New Orleans, an address ringing, powerful. She said:

"I am going from house to house. I shall hold parlor meetings in every home that is opened to me to urge women to vote in favor of this tax. I shall tell them that the health—yes, the lives—of their children and families depends on the proper sanitation of the city."

Mrs. Waring, wife of the lamented sanitary writer and worker, George E. Waring of New York, sat on the platform too. She had never made a speech in her life, but, moved by the eloquence of Miss Gordon that night, she rose to her feet and spoke strong words for the good cause.

Kate Gordon was as good as her word. She went from house to house arguing, instructing, urging with all a girl's enthusiasm the necessity of at least putting New Orleans on a level with civilized cities elsewhere. Today she gave an oration in the splendid mansion of a new rich with a long purse. Tomorrow in the old French quarter it was a talk to conservative ladies with a long descent, and wherever she went this resourceful girl with the winning tongue and the earnest purpose brought the ladies over to her side. There are 15,000 women property owners in New Orleans. They turned out magnificently on election day and their vote carried the tax levy. Without their vote, it would have been lost, and New Orleans might still have been in the condition of Manila and Havana before the American occupation. JANE STORZ.

Father-in-Law Shot Dead.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Sept. 23.—Mrs. Joseph Fair shot and instantly killed her father-in-law, Joseph Fair, at her home in South Cheyenne. She claims that ever since her marriage the deceased had tried to prejudice his son against her. The old man pointed a revolver at the woman, saying he was going to kill her, but left without further demonstration. Later he returned and, seizing the woman by the arm, threw her down. Putting one knee on her neck, he essayed to draw his revolver. His victim held his arm and succeeded in escaping. Running to the house she procured another revolver and as her father-in-law entered the door she fired, killing him instantly.

Fined for Shooting Railbirds.

Wilmington, Del., Sept. 23.—Mrs. James K. Hackett of New York, better known by her stage name, Mary Manning, was fined $56 for shooting railbirds in the Delaware marshes yesterday without a license. Mrs. Hackett is a guest of Mrs. Alfred Dupont. John Cross, a veteran gunner, obtained a license for Mr. Hackett and the name was left blank. When approached by a detective Cross apparently attempted to fill in the name of Mrs. Hackett, but was prevented. Mr. Hackett killed seventy-four birds, while his wife killed forty-one.

Wrecks Waterworks Plant.

Willmar, Minn., Sept. 23.—One of the boilers in the city waterworks and electric light plant exploded, wrecking the plant. A large section of the boiler was thrown over a block of residences, landing in the street. Night Engineer Nels Bredeeson was thrown into the engine pit, escaping with slight wounds on his arm. The damage is estimated at $30,000; insurance, $10,000.

Secretary Root's Son Ill.

New York, Sept. 23.—Because of the serious illness of his eldest son, Elihu Root, secretary of war, hastened back to his home in this city. Mr. Root's son has been ill for two weeks from typhoid fever, and the father will not return to Washington until the patient has passed the critical period, which will not be reached until next week.

Run Burning Ship Ashore.

Ashland, Wis., Sept. 23.—The wooden steamer Fedora, without cargo, bound from Duluth to Ashland to load iron ore, caught fire when off Bass Island and became a total loss. Her crew of seventeen men escaped, although they lost all of their clothing and effects.

Pandean Pipe of Guitars.

The natives of British Guiana have a species of Pandean pipe, with fourteen reeds, varying in length from five feet ten inches to four feet, set in a hollow piece of wood, and bound together with strips of vegetable fiber.

Flag's Fox Is Shot Dead.

Guthrie, Ok., Sept. 23.—Trainmen arriving from the south on the Santa Fe report the killing of a cowboy, William Jones, in the Indian territory because he talked in favor of anarchism and said he would not respect the flag. He was in the act of asserting himself when a stranger pulled a pistol and shot him dead. George Bradshaw, who is in jail here for safekeeping because he refused to walk under the American flag in Oklahoma City, said that he was sorry for the Buffalo shooting, that he was a native of Tennessee and not a foreigner and that he had no sympathy with anarchists.
